Kinross Cop and Township Supervisor Get Dunked

Kinross, Michigan, September 1, 2005 – The Kinross Charter Township is having some fun and raising money for the Kinross Recreation center at this years Chippewa County Fair. Supervisor Jason Oberle and Police Chief Joe Micolo decided to be pro active and get the whole community involved in raising funds for the center. “Joe and I are committed to making sure that the recreation center stays open. Whatever we can do to get the community involved and improve the centers financial health is a win-win for Kinross Township. The recreation center is essential for keeping our youth active and out of trouble.” said Jason Oberle.

The dunk tank will be open every day for the rest of the fair and will be staffed by various volunteers from the community including staff and kids from the recreation center. “I’m just glad to be here” said Police Chief Micolo “This is a great cause and it is inspiring to see so many Kinross residents come by and cheer us on”.

The tank can be found across from the live alligator exhibit in the center of the fairgrounds and will be open each night until 7:00 pm.

The 2005 Chippewa County Fair is open through September 5 at the Chippewa County Fairgrounds Kinross, Michigan 49752 Located just 1 mile off I-75 Kinross exit 378.
